

Indianapolis Air Show to be held August 22–24 at Mt. Comfort Airport

INDIANAPOLIS—The popular Indianapolis Air Show returns to Mount Comfort Airport August 22-24, 2008.

Among this year's performers are the U.S. Air Force Air Combat Command F-22A Demonstration Team, which will headline the event. Other performers will include the U.S. Army's parachute team, the Golden Knights, and numerous other world-class civilian aerobatic entertainers.

The show features an outstanding collection of modern and historic aircraft on display, including fighter, bomber, trainer, and transport aircraft and a variety of other military aircraft, including the RD-12 Guardrail, MV-22 Osprey, T-45 Goshawk, C-130 Hercules, A-10 Thunderbolt II, and many others.

The 12th annual event, whose net proceeds go to the Central Indiana Community Foundation, has donated more than $1.3 million through CICF to children's charities since its inception in 1997.

Reduced-priced general admission and reserved tickets can be purchased online in advance of the event. The cost for individual adult general admission tickets purchased in advance is $17 and $8 for children. A family pack reserved seating package (good for two adults and two children) is $80. Adult general admission tickets purchased individually at the gate are $20 and children's tickets are $10.
