

Lacy M. Johnson

LACY M. JOHNSON is a partner at Ice Miller LLP Indianapolis. His primary area of focus is governmental services, public affairs, and gaming. Before joining Ice Miller, Johnson was an attorney specializing in government relations services for Sagamore-Bainbridge, Inc. and Director of Security for the Indiana State Lottery. Prior to joining the lottery, he was a Lt. Colonel and Deputy Superintendent of Support Services for the Indiana State Police, where he also served as the agency's liaison to the Indiana General Assembly. Johnson is also a former Lt. Commander of the U.S. Naval Intelligence Reserves. He serves on the board of numerous city and state civic, cultural, and educational organizations.

