

Indianapolis Airport Authority

Jack Morton

A member of the Indianapolis Airport Authority Board representing Hancock County since 2004, JACK MORTON has an extensive professional background in information technologies, primarily in the banking industry. He has degrees in mathematics and information systems management from Ball State and Indiana University.

